

The KLove radio station has encouraged me to love those around me and live at peace with my neighbors. It has also given me positive music to hear in times of anxiety and depression. It is a true testimony of God's power on earth and God has used it to spur many listeners on to love and good deeds as they reflect the love God has shown them by the sacrifice of his Son for their sins.